BENEFITS OF ILGL MEMBERSHIP INCLUDE:

ILGL ANNUAL CONFERENCE AND SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Provide focused and specific CLE professional education opportunities every year. The ILGL Annual Conference covers a variety of timely local government issues and provides additional annual programming on topics of particular interest, such as municipal prosecution and legal ethics.

THE ILGL MEMBER LISTSERV

Provides instantaneous posting of inquiries and responses when you need quick answers and advice.

MEMBERS ONLY ACCESS TO WEBSITE

Access to website document center and ordinance bank.

THE ILGL JOURNAL

Published six times a year, contains articles and commentary on the most recent issues in local government law.

MONTHLY AND QUARTERLY TELECONFERENCES

Members' monthly or quarterly scheduled 60-minute free form teleconferences, held over the lunch hour. Participants confer on issues of mutual concern and special interests, share information and solutions to problems in candid "no holds barred" discussions. All participants receive CLE credit.
